

Week Without Violence

2022 Events

"Centering Survivors"

eliminating racism
empowering women
ywca alliance

YWCA Alliance October 17th - 22nd

Monday

17

Voice Up, Voice Out

Scan the QR code to pledge to raise awareness, elevate survivor voices, and advocate to end gender based violence.

Tuesday

18

Community Round Table

At Haggart Hall from 6-7:30 PM-Topic: "Centering Survivors"

Guest speakers include Detective Bill Johnson from the Alliance Police Department, Gina Bowers from Commquest, Rebecca Spangler from Alliance Domestic Violence Shelter, and Henna Schafer from Community Legal Aid.

Wednesday

19

YWCA- Guest Bartending

At Buffalo Wild Wings in Alliance from 7:00-9:00PM Join Executive Director Stacie Weimer and Program Director Korena Pow as they serve as guest bartenders. All tips go directly back in support of the YWCA. Includes 50/50 raffle and atomic wing challenge! Must be 21+ to consume alcohol

Thursday

20

Walk a Mile in Their Shoes

From 5:30-7:30 PM on the corner of Rockhill and State Street (Next to UMU Hartshort St Townhouses) Participants will literally walk one mile in high-heeled shoes. This is for the sole purpose of raising awareness about the dire effects of sexual and domestic assault in our community. Keynote Speaker: Stark County Prosecutor Kyle L Stone

Friday

21

Twitter Storm

Join us in an engaging Twitter chat from 2:00-3:00 p.m. ET, hosted by our team at YWCA USA! We will be discussing how today's most dismissive issues impact survivors. Participate in the conversation on Twitter using #WWV22

Saturday

22

#SelfCareSaturday

Taking the time to engage in healing and self-care as a provider, advocate, activist, or survivor is an integral part of your own mental and physical well-being and will help make you an even more powerful advocate for our causes and clients.

VISIT WWW.ALLIANCEYWCA.ORG FOR MORE INFORMATION